

Manager Masterclass: Delegation & Empowerment

½ day workshop on essential skills for managers

'I don't delegate because it's quicker and better to do it myself'

Other reasons why people don't delegate include the fear that someone else will do it better, lack of trust, fear of rejection or not sure how to.

Delegation is at the heart of good management and this workshop will help you get break the 'vicious circle' of poor delegation, so you can take a fresh look at your style and task list. It will cover:

- Areas that can be delegated and to whom
- Rules of good delegation
- Coaching for success when it goes wrong
- Using the 'Pygmalion' effect to empower others
- 'Stop, start, continue' - areas to take away to work on

As you leave this workshop with new skills and knowhow, you'll be looking for opportunities to practice the art of effective delegation with renewed vigour.
